WISHING YOU A BETTER YEAR IN 2021!

MESSAGE FROM THE 2020/2021 SBAA PRESIDENT

CATHIE SMITH

Dear SBAA Members,

What a long and tiring haul 2020, the year that keeps on giving, has been. So many challenges we've never had to face and so much disturbance in the lives that we were so comfortable with; so much to reorganize and re-invent, learning new ways to manage our daily lives and our sanity.

But wait ... What is that glow on the horizon? The promise of a new year! New Years Day has always been my favorite holiday. I love the sense of a clean slate, the urge to "clean house", change directions, and try embracing new creative outlets. 2021 may have a bit of a rough start so it will take continued grit and fellowship to stay the course. Connect with your friends and fellow artists as much as you can. We still have no idea when the SBAA will be able to resume a regular schedule of shows but Gallery 113 continues to do what it can to showcase your artwork and they need your support.

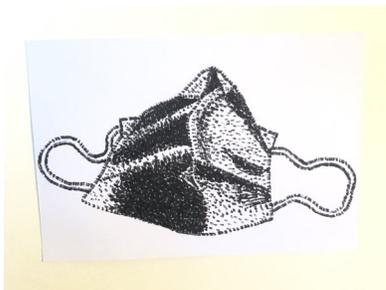

Wishing you all Good Health and a renewed Spirit in the New Year. May 2021 shower you with unexpected pleasures and blessings!

NEWS ABOUT MEMBERS

CONGRATULATIONS!

Ruth Ellen Hoag's painting, West Village (acrylic, 23x24) was juried into California Watercolor Society's 51st National Exhibition. It will run January 9 to February 27. This year it will be on the CWA website. <https://www.californiawatercolor.org/>

Edward Rodgers submitted a pointillism drawing of a face mask to the Carpinteria Arts Center. They will make postcards of the facemask. He also sold a print earlier this year at the Carpinteria Arts Center.

Pamela Benham's painting Untitled SBJ 2a sold from the Teeny Tiny Art exhibition at the Oceanside Museum of Art last month.

Elizabeth U. Flanagan sold Lovebirds, 5x7 acrylic on paper from GVAA's 10th Annual (1st Virtual) Picassos4Peanuts show of 140 pieces of original artwork in a variety of media for $300 or less on TheGoletaValleyArtAssociation.org.

Nancy Hull sold another pastel painting in December from 1919 State Street, a small work titled Sierra Gold.

Judith Villa sold her painting Sunshine Frolic from the Illuminations Gallery in La Cumbre Plaza. It is a 28" x 22" acrylic and enamel on canvas.

Karen Haub sold Snow Melt 24x24" a mixed media on canvas through Saatchi Art Online and Hendry's Beach 12x12" an oil on wood panel at Carpinteria Art Center's Holiday Show Gift It at 855 Linden Ave. in Carpinteria. The show runs through January 7.

SHOWS

Judith Villa had three paintings on display at the GVAA Goleta Valley Art Association Virtual Art Show. All Art is under $300. Picasso 4 Peanuts <https://www.thegoletavalleyartassociation.org/p4p-show-2020.html>

SBAA's Show at 1919 State Street Show: The current show will stay up until February, at which time we hope to be able to manage at least a semi-routine ingathering and get back to our quarterly schedule. Thank you to all for your continued patience; if you need to remove a piece from the show, please email Nancy Hull at nancyhull963@gmail.com or call her at 805-455-4381 & place the label below the hook.

Pam Kaganoff participated in Westmont Ridley-Tree Museum of Art Online Art Exhibition & Fundraiser and the SBTC WINGS shows in December, and is in the SBTC ABSTRACT 9 show January 4 - March 5 (SBTC Gallery Hours 10am-2pm daily, four people at a time practicing social distancing) 805-682-4722

Nadya Brown has had artwork accepted both at the Santa Barbara Tennis Club exhibit Wings, where the juror gave it an honorable mention and it was sold, and at the 5x5 Westmont fundraising auction exhibit.

Pamela Benham's painting Untitled SD 6 is included in the exhibit 100 GRAND at the Sullivan Goss Gallery. The exhibit is up through January 24. Her paintings are also showing in the Ottman Gallery of the Attleboro Arts Museum, Massachusetts through February 1 and in the Rochester Contemporary Art Center, New York through January 9.

Karen Haub is showing her work Becoming 20x20 in the Wings Show at the Santa Barbara Tennis Club through January 1st at 2375 Foothill Rd, Santa Barbara.

John M. Williams is participating in the exhibit/auction at the Ridley Tree Art Museum at Westmont College along with other local artists.

Ruth Ellen Hoag is one of four artists included in The Arts Fund Spotlight on the artist. It will be online through February. Go to <https://www.artsfunds.org/fzaw-ruth-ellen-hoag>

Lovebirds by Elizabeth U. Flanagan

Show Dates: January 5 - 29

Reception: Thursday, January 7, 5 - 8

Artists of the Month: William Prosser

Révélateur is a process of creating art, where the sub-conscious 'reveals' to the creator of the art, its own independent expression of a theme; the conscious mind of the artist becomes a passive witness to the act.

A wee bit like Zen.

This creative method seeks to combine and juxtapose symbolic images to portray emotions, hopes, fears and dreams – that we all share - in a novel fashion, to 'reveal' and understand our human condition in a new light.

FRONT WINDOW

Gallery 113 has a show on the television in their front window. It's really great at night! This is an idea that we can expand upon by having people directed to the website for information and sales, so if the gallery is not open the website is always available! And the website is better than ever — go to
